NOTICE OF AMENDED CERTIFICATE OF CONFERENCE TO STATE DEFENDANTS' MOTIONS TO DISMISS

On Tuesday, May 28, 2024, State Defendants filed their motion to dismiss Fair Map Plaintiffs Supplemental Complaint on the grounds that their claims lack judicially discoverable and manageable standards and because Plaintiffs have not alleged facts that would establish a right to a remedy cognizable to the federal courts. (ECF 779). On Tuesday, June 4, 2024, State Defendants filed their motion to dismiss Abuabara Plaintiffs' Supplemental Complaint, raising similar arguments. (ECF 785).

It has since come to State Defendants' attention that while preparing these motions, a certificate of conference from another filing was somehow incorporated into the drafts, which stated Plaintiffs were unopposed to State Defendants' motion. This was done in error. State Defendants did not confer with Plaintiffs before filings its dispositive motions; nor were they required to under Local Rule CV-7(G).

State Defendants therefore submit this notice to inform the Court that it is updating its certificates of conference to state that Abuabara Plaintiffs oppose State Defendants' motion to dismiss their claims and that Fair Maps Plaintiffs presumably oppose State Defendants' motion.
